IntraSystems to acquire ACCSCIENT Digital to enhance digital advisory and business transformation services

Braintree, Massachusetts – April 2, 2024 — IntraSystems, a highly respected IT consulting company, managed services provider, and systems integrator founded in 1996, is thrilled to announce the acquisition of ACCSCIENT Digital to incorporate strategic advisory and digital transformation into its already robust range of IT solutions and services. With decades of proven success in deploying and delivering IT infrastructure, virtualization services, security, and cloud solutions, incorporating ACCSCIENT Digital's people-first organizational change management expertise.

This acquisition marks a significant milestone for both organizations that promises enhanced solutions and services by combining the complementary breadth and depth of technical capabilities with a strategic advisory function. The result will help position IntraSystems as a single-source leader for technical, operational, strategic organizational growth, and innovation.

"We are thrilled to join forces with ACCSCIENT Digital," said Paul Kunze, IntraSystems' CEO. "This acquisition represents a strategic alignment of our values, goals, and commitment to delivering exceptional value to our clients. Together, we are well-positioned to drive innovation, accelerate growth, and provide even greater solutions that address the evolving needs of our clients."

"Joining the IntraSystems family is a natural step for ACCSCIENT Digital," said Robert Dillard, ACCSCIENT Digital's Managing Global Director. "By combining our expertise and resources, we can offer our clients a broader range of strategic solutions to architect executable strategies that inspire organizations and facilitate growth."

IntraSystems and ACCSCIENT Digital remain fully committed to delivering clients the highest level of service and support throughout the transition period and beyond.
